

Special Olympics Missouri Marketing/Communications Internship

Brief Description: This intern will work directly with the marketing and communications team of Special Olympics Missouri. The intern will have opportunities to impact the lives of individuals with intellectual disabilities (ID), increase marketing/communications skills in a sports environment and learn how to be a part of a team. This position is a hybrid role, and the intern workload will be based on availability and affiliated institution requirements.

Timeframe: Spring 2023, will ideally wrap up after the 2023 State Summer Games, June 2-4.

Details: Internship length and hours are flexible, depending on the student's needs. The intern will work roughly 10-20 hours a week. The intern can work remotely but should spend at least one day per week at the Headquarters office in Jefferson City. The pay is $12 per hour.

Specific job duties:

The marketing and communications intern will assist the marketing/communications team in a number of duties that will include but are not limited to:

- Help take pictures/video of SOMO events
- Help with graphic design
- Help with website editing/posting
- Help with State Games' Opening Ceremony planning and look of the Games setup/assistance
- Help with other event planning as assigned
- Help generate new marketing/communications ideas
- Help with all staff requests
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

If interested, please provide the following information.

- A link to your best marketing/communications work
- Resume with two references we can contact

Interested candidates should send these two things to Marketing and Communications Director Andrew Kauffman (kauffman@somo.org) and Senior Director of Operations Jessica Anderson (janderson@somo.org) by the deadline: Dec. 4, 2022.